

Write the verse you are focusing on and circle the word in it that you wish to do a word study on.

Look up the word in a dictionary (such as Merriam-Webster) and write the definition(s) below.

Look up synonyms and antonyms for the word.

Synonyms	Antonyms

Define the word in your own words. Write out the meaning as if you were explaining it to someone else.

Summarize your observations and consider the Scriptural context in which the word appears.